Notes & Announcements

Update on the Organ

This Sunday, August 14, Marsha will be able to play the organ for the worship service. However, this is just a part of the on-going process of the organ's refurbishment. During the week of August 15 - 19 the organ builders will be in the church building finishing the installation. They will need access to all parts of the building, so please be aware if you need to be in the building next week.

Blessing the First Day of Classes for OU Monday, August 22

You are invited to join Mother Deborah on the front steps of the church from 9 am – 11 am as she gives a blessing to the OU community on the first day of classes with free coffee and donuts. This is an enjoyable way to be present to our neighbors as they begin a new academic year. In the past we have met new students of all ages, several who stop and share their stories with us, some ask for directions, and most just say thank you while they take a coffee or donut to go. Whether you can stay for part of the time or all of the time, you are welcome to be part of blessing our neighbors on this important day.

The Good Shepherd Thrift Shop Needs Household Goods ( & coats later)

With the student move-in time upon us, the Thrift Shop could use household items. Dishes, glasses, flatware, cooking utensils, pots and pans, linens, towels, small appliances, etc..

Right now we have an overabundance of clothing. We will need coats and cold weather items when the weather gets cold so we can do the coat give-away again. So save up your donations of these things till then.

Please place your donations in the Church School room. They will be sorted, priced, and shelved from there.

Thanks,

Lois Wagner
