Notes & Announcements

Coats and Winter Gear

It's getting quite chilly lately so the Good Shepherd Thrift Shop is now accepting cold weather gear. We need coats, jackets, heavy sweater, sweat shirts, hats, scarves, gloves, mittens - anything to keep someone warm. We will do a cold-weather-gear give away again this year.

Please place your items in the Sunday School Room so they can be sorted and organized.

And please, out of respect for our clientele, donate items that are gently used and clean.

Thanks,
The Marthas

OU Alumni still in town for Homecoming on Sunday are welcome to join us at 10:30 am for worship. Please wear a mask while inside the building. Several of our parishioners are immunocompromised and wearing a mask is how we make the service accessible for them. Thank you understanding and caring.

Mother Deborah is on Vacation

Mother Deborah and Michael are out of town on vacation. Please pray for their safe travel and time of rest and direct all pastoral emergencies to our Senior Warden, Alex Buckley.

Mother Deborah will be back Tuesday, October 11.

CROP WALK

A report to David from the crop walk organizer.

Hello Dr. B.,

Thanks for your help in making this year's CROPwalk a success. I'm very happy with how the day played out...weather, turn out, and drum roll now.....

Preliminary Total $3,542.00

Good Shepherd $410.00 (to date)

Terrific! Thanks so to your walkers and sponsors!

With the online contributions, we will be up above $4,000.

Gratefully, Adele

All Saints Sunday

All Saints Sunday will be celebrated on Sunday, November 6, 2022. If you would like the name of a deceased loved one added to the All Saints' Roll to be read during the service, please notify our Parish Administrator, Barbara Martin, no later than Tuesday, November 1 for inclusion in this year's Necrology. The Church Office telephone number is 740-593-6877, or you can submit names by email at barbara@chogs.org.

Volunteers Needed to Serve as Ushers

If you are interested in or feel called to serve as an usher, please contact Mother Deborah.

The ministry of ushers is:

- Warmly greeting people coming into church service by giving them bulletin and mask (if they don't have one already).
- Passing the collection plate at the offertory hymn.
- Be available to answer any questions visitors might have (ex. where restrooms are located).
- Help collect discarded bulletins after the service and put them in recycling.
- Assist Treasurer with counting and reporting on the money collected that day.

How often a person serves depends on how many people volunteer. Scheduling can be flexible. Please prayerfully consider if you are being called to this ministry of welcome and hospitality.

For the most part the morning glories have done their thing for the season, but this last flower bloomed today to beat the upcoming frost. A closeup for the center looks very celestial like a star explosion the Webb telescope might capture.
