In our world,

we pray for Justin, Archbishop of Canterbury, and for Michael, our Presiding Bishop; we pray for peace with justice throughout the Middle East. We pray for all people affected by natural and environmental disasters. We pray also for the people who are suffering from war, especially all refugees. We pray for Donald, our President, and John, our Governor, the Supreme Court, and the members of the Congress.

In our diocese, we pray for Thomas, our Diocesan Bishop, and Nedi, our Assisting Bishop. We pray also for Our Saviour, Mt. Auburn; Redeemer, Hyde Park, and the Community of the Transfiguration.

In our parish, we pray for Good Shepherd's continued growth, for our Priest-in-charge, the Rev. Deborah Woolsey, for our Associate Priests, the Rev. Katharin Foster and the Rev. David McCoy, and for our ministry to students, the university, and the community. We pray for our friends at St. Luke's Anglican Mission in Mérida, Mexico. We pray also for the Vestry.

Those for whom our prayers are requested: *

Andrew and Beth, Kris, Kristi, Mary Lou, Weston, Pam, Jeff, Ann and Bill, Stephen, Mary, Bob, the D'Andrea family, Elizabeth, Gifford, Aletta, Chris, Sally, Jan, Pat, Doris, Sharon, Clif, William, Patricia, Paul, David, Aletta, Holly, Robert, Zack, Don, the Sheets family, Elliot, John, Nancy, Bonnie, Arvin, Sandi, June, Suzan, and Sister Emmanuel, and we pray for all who care for them.

Birthdays: Jeroch Carlson (7/2), Gifford Doxsee (7/4), Bill Kaldis (7/4), Megan Reilly Shannon (7/4), Ann Shelly (7/5), Max Carney (7/7), Mark Shelly (7/7)

Anniversary: Pat and Karen Smith (6/21)

The Altar Flowers are given: In loving memory and admiration of our mom, Barbara Pugh Daniel, from Robert, Martha, and Joe. Striving and caring, she believed in good politics, public education, culture ... she always acknowledged other redheads ... They teased in Franklin County where Mom worked that Christopher Columbus had discovered Columbus. Her sister, Roberta, later in life taught Mom to frequently pause and say "Life is." Mom left us well and believing in the "Great Pumpkin."

* Full names for this section are not published online but are in the Sunday bulletin and will be read at the 10:30 service.

If you have a name to be added to the prayer list, Lynn Graham maintains this information. Lynn may be reached at 740-593-5098 or grahammowery@aol.com.

Jesus said, "Whoever welcomes you welcomes me, and whoever welcomes me welcomes the one who sent me. Whoever welcomes a prophet in the name of a prophet will receive a prophet's reward; and whoever welcomes a righteous person in the name of a righteous person will receive the reward of the righteous; and whoever gives even a cup of cold water to one of these little ones in the name of a disciple-truly I tell you, none of these will lose their reward."

Growing Partnerships

On Thursday morning, several visitors from Cincinnati came to Church of the Good Shepherd to meet with Mother Deborah and several members of the Executive Team. These visitors were the Rev. Jason Leo, who met with the vestry in June, David Dreisbach, Director of Communications for the Diocese of Southern Ohio and Ryan Doan, who works for Deeper Roots Coffee. Deeper Roots is a company that was started by the same person who helped start Rohs Street Cafe, the cafe Mother Deborah and Michael visited in May. In addition to roasting and distributing direct trade coffee, Deeper Roots works with churches who want to start coffee shops and cafés. Their experience and generosity in sharing resources including network partners is part of their mission. Ryan came to Good Shepherd in that spirit to take a look at our facilities, encourage us, and make recommendations about what types of equipment we will need. Jason was here representing the Diocese, and to hear what Ryan had to say. Jason and Mother Deborah are working together to gather information needed for a proposal they will submit to the bishop for the cafe. David was here to get ideas to help with creating a name, signage, and other things in the marketing area.

The visit was energizing and warm. Ryan was impressed with our facilities, commenting that we are in very good shape to start a cafe, and thinks our location is ideal. Ryan will be following up with Jason and Mother Deborah, and they will be exploring things like types of espresso machines. The goal for Jason and Mother Deborah is to have a rough draft of the proposal ready for the vestry to view by the end of August and then to present that proposal to Bishop Breidenthal.

Projects like this that are new can produce the beautiful fruit of relationships. As we continue to move forward, it is important to remember this cafe isn't just a Good Shepherd initiative, it is an idea the Bishop had that Jason helped form into a pilot project that Good Shepherd was invited into. Now the circle is widening to include Deeper Roots and David Dreisbach. As the circle grows stronger, we will have the opportunity to get to know these folks better. The Holy Spirit often works like that, bringing people together to work on a common ministry. That is part of what makes this project holy. Please keep the cafe and all our ministry partners in your prayers.

Wednesday Free-Lunch Report

MEALS

On June 28, Group 4 fed 32 people 41 servings.

The main meat dish was Chicken Pasta Salad and the main vegetarian dish was Greek Pasta salad. Fresh salad, fruit, dessert, and beverages were also served.

The helpers this week were Maryann Gunderson, Anne Braxton, Jean Thomas, Lynn Graham, Hailey Luelloff, Ed Burns, David Burton, and Kelsey Gerrard.

Please remember the hungry in our community in your prayers. To become involved in one or more of the four lunch teams, please speak to Phyllis Dean, Zelma Coleman, Joanne Larson, or David Burton.

The Sunday School Flower Bed Revisited

Obviously our resident deer have not become aware of this bed so let's be mum about the additional flowers and keep this our little secret.

Altar Flowers -- how to order

I have placed a calendar on the church bulletin board in the stairway across from Hobson Lounge. There is a pen on a string that you can use to add your name to an open Sunday of your choosing. I need at least one week in advance to get the flowers ordered and to make sure the wording of your dedication is as you choose.

The procedure:

- 1) Write your name on the calendar;
- 2) Email me (huge@ohio.edu) or phone me (740-592-5178) to give me your dedication.
- 3) I will order flowers through Hyacinth Bean Florist and give your name and address for billing. The cost is $60 for the arrangement; $10 delivery fee; $4.90 tax. Total: $74.90.
- 4) I will relay your dedication so that it appears in the e-news and bulletin.

Thank you for your generous donations to keep our altar flowers coming.

Sharon Huge

If you wish to have special colors or specific flowers, you may call Polly Creech, our florist, at Hyacinth Bean (740-594-9302) to discuss your wishes. If you want to go to the shop to discuss special arrangements, Hyacinth Bean Florist is located at 540 W. Union St. in Athens. There is ample free parking in the lot outside the shop. Keep in mind that this MAY increase the cost.

Pastoral Care

Because of health care privacy laws, hospitals are no longer able to call your priest or parish when you are in the hospital. That means that if you want a visit from Mother Deborah or a Lay Eucharistic Visitor (a parish member who has some training) you need to call and ask for a visit. For emergencies please call Mother Deborah's cell phone 937-689-8895. If you would prefer prayers instead of a visit, just call and ask for prayers.

Mother Deborah's home phone is 740-249-4497, and her cell number is 937-689-8895, for emergencies.

Her personal email is the Rev. Deborah Woolsey <revdebwoolsey@gmail.com>, and the email through the church is the Rev. Deborah Woolsey <revdeborah@chogs.org>.

Mother Deborah has found that people like to communicate in many ways, so she is reachable on Facebook (<http://facebook.com/deborah.woolsey.12>) and on Twitter (<http://twitter.com/DeborahWoolsey>), and you can check out her blog at (<http://www.revvedupwoolsey.com/>).
